31st Annual FLRC Workshop

7th - 9th February 2018Massey University, Palmerston North, New Zealand

FARM ENVIRONMENT PLANNING - SCIENCE, POLICY AND PRACTICE

The Fertilizer and Lime Research Centre have hosted these meetings annually at Massey University since 1987. They have become established as an effective mechanism for information transfer amongst industry, science, policy and regulatory personnel concerned with primary production in New Zealand.

More than 80 submissions were received for this Workshop and a programme has been put together that includes keynote, invited, oral and poster presentations.
